(3) Further Explanation

According to " Regulations Regarding International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan," Article 4 :

An international student applying to study at an educational institution in Taiwan in accordance with the provisions of the two previous articles is limited to only applying once. If a student wants to continue studying in Taiwan, their application shall be handled in the same manner as the admission procedures for domestic students.

An international student in any of the following circumstances, who after applying to study in Taiwan in accordance with the preceding paragraph, is applying to continue studying in Taiwan, or is once again applying to study in Taiwan, is not subject to the restriction set out in the preceding paragraph.

1. If the international student is applying for admission to a master's degree or higher-level program after completing the course of study at the educational institution to which they originally applied. The university to which the student is now applying shall handle the application in accordance with its regulations;
2. If the international student applied to come to Taiwan to undertake a bachelor's degree or lower-level program in Taiwan and after coming to Taiwan stayed for less than one year for some reason then discontinued their studies or forfeited their student status, that student may lodge another application to come to Taiwan to study, but only one such further application is permitted.
3. If the international student meets the requirements set out in the provisions of Article 2, Paragraph 1 and they are applying for admission to an associate degree program or a program below that level.

4. If the international student meets the requirements set out in the provisions of Article 2, Paragraph 1 and they are applying for admission to a bachelor's degree program other than one in a university department of medicine, dentistry, or Chinese medicine; only one such further application is permitted.

If an educational institution in Taiwan where an international student was studying considers that their conduct or academic performance was unsatisfactory, or if the student seriously violated any ordinances or the regulations of the educational institution and the circumstances were serious and as a result, in accordance with the provisions of its regulations governing student awards and penalties had to discontinue their studies or forfeited their status as a registered student, the student is not permitted to re-apply to study in Taiwan on the basis of the provisions of the previous two paragraphs.

2026 International Industrial Talents Education Special Program
List of Enrollment Instructions

NO	Class Name	Department of Automation Engineering, Smart Automation Program
1	Objective of the Program	This special class offers international students the opportunity to engage in long-term talent cultivation and retention strategies and to learn automation, smart manufacturing technologies and mechatronics system development. Through the synergy of academic and industrial research and development, as well as technological capabilities, this program aims to nurture talents in technical fields, including mechatronics, AIoT, 5G, and cloud platforms, as well as to strengthen sustainable management and other related areas. We are committed to nurturing professionals with expertise in smart manufacturing to meet industrial demands.
2	Duration of Study	Two years
3	Eligible Countries for Admission	Thailand, Vietnam, Philippines, Indonesia
4	Number of Students Admitted	Admitting 5 candidates and 2 waitlisted candidates.
5	Evaluation Criteria and Review Process	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. First Phase Evaluation Criteria: The overall score = Comprehensive evaluation of written materials (50%) + Comprehensive evaluation of joint interviews by the school and the company (50%). 2. Second Phase Evaluation Review: The school submits a list of qualified candidates for verification by the Ministry of Education and a comprehensive review of written materials. Candidates who submit the following complete documents will meet the Ministry of Education's priority admission criteria: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Academic transcript (top 30% of the class). b. Recommendation letter from school faculty. c. School ranking. d. Other evidence of outstanding academic performance. 3. For candidates admitted in the first phase by the school, if they fail to meet the Ministry of Education's requirements in the second phase due to discrepancies in qualifications or submitted documents, and if the review results in disqualification, the selection will be handled according to the review results of the preferences chosen during the application process, and the original spot will be filled by an alternate candidate.

		4. As the review process for this specialized program is relatively lengthy, applicants are strongly advised to select a second or third department preference to ensure they retain eligibility for general master's program scholarships and enrollment in case they do not pass the Ministry of Education's second-stage review.
6	Living Allowance	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Partner companies provide a monthly living allowance of NT$10,000 to students during their studies. Students are obligated to remain employed in Taiwan for 2 years after graduation. 2. During the internship period, students must negotiate the internship course content with the school and sign a written contract in accordance with Regulations Governing the Implementation Methods of Industry-Academic Cooperation for Junior College and above. 3. Availability of second-year internships varies by company.
7	Department Elective Courses and Credit Hours	Total graduation credits: 34 credits, including 6 required credits and 24 elective credits. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To graduate, a minimum of 34 credits must be earned, including 10 credits for required subjects (which include Level(I)(II) for Mandarin、0 credits for Seminar(I)(II)(III)(IV) or Off-campus industry R&D internship (I)(II), and Thesis Writing) and at least 24 credits for elective professional courses. 2. Courses offered by departments of the College of Engineering and the College of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science may be taken with the approval of the advisor.
8	Admission Qualifications	The outstanding students to be recruited must meet the objectives of the government's scholarships and subsidies: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Comply with the regulations of the Regulations Regarding International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan, Regulations Regarding Study and Counseling Assistance for Overseas Chinese Students in Taiwan, and the Measures for Residents of Hong Kong and Macao to Study in Taiwan. 2. Priority will be given to students and graduates from schools recommended by the Overseas Missions. 3. Students must have achieved an average academic performance during university or upon graduation that ranks in the upper-middle tier of their class or department.

9	Employment Obligation	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. After studying in Taiwan for two years and obtaining a master's degree from Taiwan, students are obligated to remain employed in Taiwan for 2 years after graduation. 2. During the period when students are fulfilling their employment obligations after graduation, they should stay in Taiwan and work in domestic cooperative companies. They are not allowed to be assigned by cooperative companies to foreign branches or work in overseas Taiwanese companies. If the applicant is not employed in the country as mentioned above, the industry-university scholarship received shall be refunded in proportion to the number of months the applicant was not employed in the country; if it is less than one month, it shall be counted as one month.
10	Internship Regulations	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. According to the curriculum jointly planned by the school and enterprises, off-campus internship courses may be arranged during the period of on-campus studies. The off-campus internship courses must be conducted within the country. 2. The school must sign a written contract with partner enterprises in accordance with the school's industry-academic cooperation implementation methods. 3. The labor insurance is applicable only to employed workers with Taiwanese nationality aged 15-65; therefore, foreign students cannot participate in labor insurance, and employers are not obliged to insure them (according to Employment Insurance Act, Article 5). However, the internship company is obliged to assist students in joining the company's group insurance. 4. Before the start of the internship, enterprises must sign a cooperation contract with the school (department) with templates provided by the school's internship group, clearly defining the relevant precautions for student internships and then proceed with the related insurance. 5. During the off-campus internship period, students are responsible for their transportation costs, meals and lodging fees, and accident insurance fees (accident insurance is uniformly assisted by the department). 6. If students are unable to report for duty to the internship institution on schedule due to illness or accidents, or must take leave during the internship period, they must obtain prior approval from the internship institution and inform the supervising teacher in writing for record-keeping.

11	National Development Fund Industry-Academia Scholarship Subsidy Principles	Students of the new special class, who are jointly selected and admitted through the application to the school and partner companies who have passed the review, will be provided with industry-academic scholarships by the National Development Fund. However, those who have already received other government scholarships are not eligible to apply again.
12	Subsidy Items and Maximum Limits	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.
